Celebrating Singapore's 61st Birthday Together in Nee Soon

Nee Soon was bustling with festive joy and buoyant spirits on National Day as residents and Nee Soon GRC MPs celebrated Singapore's birthday.

Senior Minister K Shanmugam and fellow Nee Soon GRC MPs Ms Goh Hanyan, Dr Syed Harun Alhabsyi, Mr Jackson Lam and Ms Lee Hui Ying met with residents across Nee Soon Link and Nee Soon East.

The MPs walked through the neighbourhood, exchanging greetings with residents and stallholders and distributing Singapore flags. Amid the lively surroundings of the heartlands, the morning was filled with animated conversations and laughter as residents and MPs alike soaked in the National Day atmosphere together.

The MPs also joined residents at the Nee Soon East Seniors' Hub, where a carnival brought different generations together for a morning of games, activities and community bonding. Visitors at the carnival were also treated to a surprise chapteh display by Dr Syed Harun, who demonstrated his prowess with 14 consecutive kicks.

From seniors proudly waving the national flag to families and children enjoying traditional games and activities, the morning captured the warmth and diversity of the Nee Soon community. Beyond commemorating Singapore's birthday, the morning also provided an opportunity for residents, neighbours and community leaders to reconnect and strengthen the bonds they share.

As Singapore celebrates another year of nationhood, these moments remind us that the strength of our nation begins in our neighbourhoods. Whether through a conversation over breakfast, a Singapore flag shared with a neighbour or families celebrating side by side, the National Day spirit continues to bring the Nee Soon community closer together.

STORIES OF HOME BRING NEE SOON TOGETHER!

To mark SG61, we invited residents to share what makes Nee Soon feel like home through the #NeeSoonHomeWithAHeart photo contest.

Grand Prize winner Molly Then has lived with her family at Block 114 Yishun Ring Road for about 15 years. Set against the familiar backdrop of their neighbourhood playground, her winning photo captures the carefree joy of her daughter riding a pink bicycle. It is a simple moment that Molly treasures as part of her daughter's childhood.

“Home is more than just a place. It's the memories we create together.” Molly shared.

To all our participants, thank you for celebrating our community through your lens. Every entry told a unique story, and we loved seeing Nee Soon from your perspective.

NEE SOON AI & INNOVATION FESTIVAL

Organised by:

"We can turn technologies into real solutions to improve lives."

— Senior Minister K Shanmugam

The Nee Soon AI & Innovation Festival brought residents of all ages together to discover how Artificial Intelligence (AI) can make everyday life more convenient, inclusive and connected.

Senior Minister K Shanmugam attended the festival alongside fellow Nee Soon GRC MPs Ms Goh Hanyan, Dr Syed Harun Alhabshi, Mr Jackson Lam and Ms Lee Hui Ying, who engaged residents and explored the various AI-driven innovations on display.

Through interactive exhibits presented by government agencies, schools, technology companies and community partners, residents experienced applications ranging from robotics and digital learning to smart community solutions. The hands-on activities encouraged families, students and seniors to explore how AI can support learning, productivity and daily living.

Speaking at the festival, SM Shanmugam emphasised the importance of collaboration, saying, "When the sectors come together and work together, our people learn new ways of doing things. We can turn technology into real solutions to improve lives."

He also shared an inspiring example of innovation emerging from within the community. A software engineer and a student, both Nee Soon residents who have played basketball together for many years, noticed that residents often had difficulty finding an available court near their homes.

Using AI to address this challenge, they developed a system that detects basketball court occupancy levels in real time. Residents can check how busy a court is before travelling there, allowing them to spend less time waiting and more time playing.

Other innovations featured at the event include ShopFront SG, an AI-powered platform that helps heartland merchants establish an online presence with minimal technical expertise. Merchants simply photograph their storefronts, shelves and products, after which AI creates digital listings that can be published across Google, WhatsApp, Grab and the ShopFront neighbourhood app.

Residents can more easily discover nearby shops, browse products and promotions, and support familiar local businesses. More than a technology showcase, the festival showed how innovation can improve daily life, strengthen heartland businesses and build a more connected Nee Soon.

Celebrating the Heroes Who Keep Nee Soon Clean

It was a day of appreciation and celebration at the Nee Soon East Seniors' Hub, where cleaners who work to keep Nee Soon's estates clean and welcoming were recognised for their contributions to the community. NSTC Chairperson Ms Goh Hanyan and Vice Chairpersons Mr Jackson Lam and Ms Lee Hui Ying, joined residents and community partners in expressing their appreciation.

“Residents do notice the work being done around their neighbourhoods. From time to time, they convey their appreciation through their MPs, thanking the cleaners for helping to keep their estates clean and pleasant,” Ms Goh shared.

A special highlight was the presentation of the Heroes of Nee Soon Special Recognition Awards, honouring cleaners who received the highest number of compliments from residents between August 2025 and July 2026 for going above and beyond in their service.

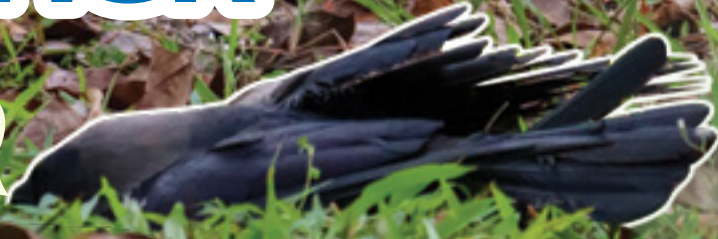

The event also brought together community partners in support of the cleaners. Republic Polytechnic helped to refurbish bicycles, while North West CDC contributed towards the cost of refurbishing each bicycle. Appreciation was also extended to Nee Soon Town Council staff and partners who helped make the initiative possible. Beyond the awards, cleaners enjoyed a lunch buffet and an afternoon of entertainment and camaraderie.

Keeping our estates clean takes hard work, dedication and pride in service. To all our cleaners who turn up every day to keep Nee Soon clean and pleasant for everyone, we thank them for their service and all that they do for our community.

MANAGING SINGAPORE'S CROW POPULATION TOGETHER

Scan QR code to watch the video

Robot decoys, gunshots and cordoned-off areas – these are key elements that form part of crow shooting operations, which are ongoing in Yishun and other parts of Singapore. In June, Chong Pang MP, Senior Minister K Shanmugam observed one of these sessions along Yishun Ring Road, and spoke with crow cullers and safety officers on site.

House crows (Corvus splendens) are not native to Singapore. As an invasive species, they pose a threat to local biodiversity and can create hygiene, safety, and nuisance issues in residential estates. Their droppings dirty public spaces, while large flocks and aggressive behaviour during nesting season can put residents at risk.

SM Shanmugam said: “We’ve tried nest removal, tree pruning, reducing food source, and several other methods. NParks has decided that shooting has got to be added to the methods that are being used to try and reduce the bird population.”

NParks reintroduced controlled crow culling operations earlier this year as part of its overall management strategy, starting with Yishun and eight other districts. Shooting operations will be expanded to more areas. These sites were chosen based on factors including the presence of large numbers of crows, the birds’ aversions to traps in the area, and site suitability to conduct crow shooting safely. More than 500 crows have been culled since shooting operations began in March.

Shooting operations are now carried out alongside existing measures to better manage the growing crow population and reduce crow-related attacks.

During a crow shooting exercise, robotic crows that mimic a crow’s call are used to lure the birds into the shooting zone. The operations are conducted by trained personnel under strict safety protocols, with officers deployed around the perimeter of cordoned-off areas. Shooters are also required to fire upwards at all times to minimise risks to the public.

一起管控乌鸦数量

诱捕器、枪声和封锁范围，构成了一次次射鸦行动，在义顺和新加坡其他地区展开。今年6月，忠邦区国会议员兼高级部长尚穆根视察了义顺环路其中一次行动，并与现场的射鸦行动人员及安全人员交流。

家鸦（学名：Corvus splendens）并非新加坡的本土品种。这类从外入侵的鸟类会对本地的生物多样性构成威胁，也会在住宅区造成卫生、安全和滋扰问题。它们的排泄物会弄脏公共空间，在繁殖季期间的鸟群大批聚集和攻击行为，也可能威胁居民的安全。

作为整体管控策略的一部分，国家公园局在今年早些时候重启了射鸦行动。行动首先在义顺和其他八个地区展开，之后将扩大到更多地区。射鸦地点的决定取决于多个因素，包括乌鸦数量较多、乌鸦对诱捕陷阱有所戒备，以及进行射杀的安全性。行动自3月展开以来，已有超过500只乌鸦遭到捕杀。

目前，射鸦行动和其他措施正在同步进行，以更好地管控不断增加的乌鸦数量，减少乌鸦相关攻击事件的发生。

BERSAMA-SAMA MENGURUS BILANGAN BURUNG GAGAK DI SINGAPURA

Robot umpan, tembakan dan kawasan-kawasan yang dikepung merupakan unsur-unsur utama yang membentuk sebahagian operasi yang sedang dijalankan di Yishun dan beberapa kawasan lain di Singapura. Pada bulan Jun, Anggota Parlimen Chong Pang dan Menteri Kanan K. Shanmugam telah memerhatikan salah satu sesi operasi di Yishun Ring Road, dan berbual dengan para petugas yang menaiki (menyingkirkan) burung gagak dan pegawai keselamatan di tempat berkenaan.

Burung gagak rumah (Corvus splendens) bukan berasal dari Singapura. Sebagai spesies yang menyerang, burung jenis ini menimbulkan ancaman kepada biokepelbagaian tempatan serta boleh menimbulkan pelbagai masalah berkaitan kebersihan, keselamatan serta gangguan di kawasan perumahan. Najis burung gagak mengotorkan ruang awam, manakala kumpulan burung yang besar dan bersikap agresif semasa musim bersarang boleh membahayakan penduduk.

Menteri Shanmugam berkata: “Kami telah mencuba pelbagai kaedah, termasuk mengalihkan sarang, mencantas pokok, mengurangkan sumber makanan dan beberapa langkah lain. NParks telah memutuskan bahawa kaedah penembakan perlu digunakan bagi membantu mengurangkan bilangan burung gagak.”

Pada awal tahun ini, NParks telah memperkenalkan semula operasi menakai burung gagak sebagai sebahagian strategi pengurusan keseluruhan bermula dengan Yishun dan lapan daerah lain. Operasi penembakan ini akan diperluaskan ke lebih banyak kawasan lain. Pemilihan lokasi dibuat berdasarkan pada faktor-faktor termasuk kehadiran bilangan burung gagak yang tinggi, kecenderungan burung gagak untuk mengelakkan perangkap di kawasan tersebut, serta kesesuaian lokasi bagi menjalankan penembakan burung gagak secara selamat. Sejak operasi penembakan ini bermula pada bulan Mac, lebih daripada 500 ekor burung gagak telah berjaya ditakai.

Operasi penembakan kini dijalankan seiring dengan kaedah yang sedia ada bagi menguruskan dengan lebih baik lagi terhadap bilangan burung gagak yang semakin meningkat dan mengurangkan serangan oleh burung gagak.

Dalam operasi penembakan burung gagak, robot umpan yang meniru bunyi panggilan burung gagak digunakan untuk mengumpan burung berkenaan ke zon penembakan. Operasi ini dilaksanakan oleh petugas terlatih di bawah protokol keselamatan yang ketat, termasuk menempatkan pegawai keselamatan di sekeliling kawasan yang dikepung itu. Penembak juga dikehendaki sentiasa melepaskan tembakan ke arah atas sepanjang masa bagi mengurangkan risiko kepada orang awam.

சிங்கப்பூரில் காகங்களின் பெருக்கத்தைக் கட்டுப்படுத்த கூட்டு முனைப்பு

சோங் பாங் நாடாளுமன்ற உறுப்பினர், மூத்த அமைச்சர் கே. சண்முகம், யிஷூன் ரிங் ரோடில் நடைபெற்ற இந்த நடவடிக்கைகளில் ஒன்றைக் கவனித்துடன், காகங்களை அகற்றும் பணியாளர்கள் மற்றும் பாதுகாப்பு அதிகாரிகளுடன் உரையாடினார்.

வீட்டுக் காகங்கள் (Corvus splendens) சிங்கப்பூரைப் பூர்வீகமாகக் கொண்ட உயிரினம் அல்ல. ஆக்கிரமிக்கும் இயல்புள்ள இந்த வகை காகங்கள், உள்ளூரின் பல்லுயிரியலுக்கு அச்சுறுத்தலை ஏற்படுத்துகின்றன. அதோடு, இவை குடியிருப்பு வட்டாரங்களில் சுகாதார, பாதுகாப்பு, தூய்மைப் பிரச்சனைகளையும் உண்டாக்கக்கூடும். அவற்றின் எச்சங்கள் பொது இடங்களை அசுத்தமாக்குகின்றன. அவை பெருங்கூட்டமாகக் கூடுகட்டி இனப்பெருக்கம் செய்யும் காலங்களில் ஆக்ரோஷமாக நடந்துகொள்ளும்போது குடியிருப்பாளர்களுக்கு ஆபத்து நேரக்கூடும்.

அமைச்சர் சண்முகம் பேசியதாவது: “கூடுகளை அகற்றுதல், மரங்களின் அமைச்சர் சண்முகம் பேசியதாவது: “கூடுகளை அகற்றுதல், மரக்கிளைகளை வெட்டுதல், காகங்களுக்கு உணவு கிடைப்பதைக் குறைத்தல் உள்ளிட்ட பல வழிமுறைகளை நாங்கள் கையாண்டோம். இந்தப் பறவைகளின் எண்ணிக்கையைக் குறைப்பதற்கான மற்றொரு வழியாக, அவற்றைச் சுடும் நடவடிக்கையையும் சேர்த்தாகவேண்டும் என்று தேசியப் பூங்காக் கழகம் முடிவு செய்துள்ளது”.

காகங்களின் எண்ணிக்கையைக் கட்டுப்படுத்தும் ஒட்டுமொத்த உத்தியின் ஒரு பகுதியாகக் காகங்களைச் சுடும் நடவடிக்கையை இவ்வாண்டு தொடக்கத்தில் தேசியப் பூங்காக் கழகம் மீண்டும் அறிமுகப்படுத்தியது. தொடக்கமாக, யிஷூனும் வேறு எட்டு வட்டாரங்களும் இந்நடவடிக்கைக்குத் தேர்ந்தெடுக்கப்பட்டன. இந்நடவடிக்கை இன்னும் பல பகுதிகளுக்கும் விரிவுபடுத்தப்படும். காகங்களின் அதிகமான எண்ணிக்கை, காகங்கள் பொறிகளைத் தவிர்ப்பது, பாதுகாப்பான முறையில் காகங்களைச் சுடுவதற்கு இடம் பொருத்தமாக இருப்பது ஆகிய காரணிகளின் அடிப்படையில் இந்த வட்டாரங்கள் தேர்ந்தெடுக்கப்பட்டன. கடந்த மார்ச் மாதத்திலிருந்து இதுவரை சுமார் 500 காகங்கள் சுட்டுவிழ்த்தப்பட்டுள்ளன.

காகங்களின் பெருக்கத்தைக் கட்டுப்படுத்தவும், காகங்களின் தாக்குதல்களைக் குறைக்கவும் ஏற்கனவே நடப்பில் இருக்கும் நடவடிக்கைகளோடு காகங்களைச் சுடும் நடவடிக்கையும் இப்போது மேற்கொள்ளப்படுகிறது.

காகங்களைச் சுடும் நடவடிக்கையின்போது, தடுப்பு போடப்பட்ட பகுதிக்குள் காகங்களை ஈர்ப்பதற்காக இயந்திரக் காகங்கள் உண்மையான காகம்போல் கரையும். பயிற்சிபெற்ற பணியாளர்கள் கடுமையான பாதுகாப்பு நெறிமுறைகளின்கீழ் நடவடிக்கையை மேற்கொள்வார்கள். தடுப்பு போடப்பட்ட பகுதிகளைச் சுற்றிலும் அதிகாரிகள் கண்காணிப்பார்கள். பொதுமக்களுக்கான ஆபத்தைக் குறைக்கும் வகையில், துப்பாக்கி சுடுபவர்கள் எப்போதும் மேல் நோக்கியே சுடவேண்டும் என்று அறிவுறுத்தப்பட்டுள்ளனர்.

How can residents help? 居民可以做什么？Bagaimanakah Penduduk Boleh Membantu? குடியிருப்பாளர்கள் எவ்வாறு உதவலாம்?

Minister Shanmugam emphasised that residents also have an important role to play:

尚穆根强调，居民能对管控乌鸦数量发挥重要作用，因此吁请居民：

Menteri Shanmugam menekankan bahawa penduduk juga boleh memainkan peranan yang penting dalam usaha ini:

பொதுமக்களும் இதில் முக்கியப் பங்களிக்க முடியும் என்று அமைச்சர் சண்முகம் பின்வருமாறு வலியுறுத்தியுள்ளார்:

Do not feed birds

不要喂食鸟类

Jangan memberi makan kepada burung

பறவைகளுக்கு உணவளிக்கக் கூடாது

Dispose of food waste properly

妥善处理食物垃圾

Buang sisa makanan dengan betul

உணவுக் கழிவுகளைச் சரியான முறையில் வீசவேண்டும்

Report feeding to relevant authorities at nparks.gov.sg

Laporkan kegiatan memberi makanan pada burung kepada pihak berkuasa yang berkaitan.

பறவைகளுக்கு உணவளிக்கும் செயல்கள் பற்றி உரிய அதிகாரிகளிடம் தெரிவிக்க வேண்டும்வேண்டும்

Birds are more likely to gather where food sources are available. Managing Singapore's crow population requires a collective effort. By working together, agencies, the Town Council and residents can ensure that Nee Soon remains a cleaner, safer and healthier place to live.

哪里有食物，哪里就更容易吸引鸟类聚集。管控乌鸦数量需要大家的共同努力。在政府机构、市镇理事会和居民的通力合作下，义顺居民将能继续享有一个更清洁、更安全、更健康的环境。

Burung lebih cenderung berkumpul di kawasan yang mempunyai sumber makanan. Menguruskan bilangan atau jumlah burung gagak di Singapura, memerlukan usaha bersama. Dengan kerjasama agensi-agensi, Majlis Perbandaran dan para penduduk, Nee Soon boleh kekal sebagai persekitaran yang lebih bersih, selamat dan sihat untuk semua.

பறவைகள் உணவு கிடைக்கும் இடங்களில் பெருமளவில் கூடுவதற்கு அதிக வாய்ப்புள்ளது. எனவே, சிங்கப்பூரில் காகங்களின் எண்ணிக்கையைக் கட்டுப்படுத்த ஒருங்கிணைந்த கூட்டு முயற்சி அவசியமாகிறது. அரசாங்க அமைப்புகள், நகர மன்றம் மற்றும் குடியிருப்பாளர்கள் ஆகிய நாம் அனைவரும் இணைந்து பணியாற்றுவதால், நீ துன் வட்டாரத்தை அனைவருக்கும் தூய்மையான, பாதுகாப்பான, ஆரோக்கியமான சூழலாக மாற்றிடுவோம்.

MICHELIN GUIDE
RESTAURANT L'ASIA SINGAPORE 2026

HAI NAN ZAI 海南仔

#01-129, Chong Pang Market and Food Centre

Serving up a range of familiar local favourites, Hai Nan Zai is known for dishes such as fried prawn mee, carrot cake, fried kway teow and oyster omelette. Its fried kway teow is cooked to order with plenty of wok hei, while the oyster omelette is another popular pick for its savoury flavour and satisfying texture. A Bib Gourmand name since 2021, it remains a go-to spot for a hearty local meal.

JI DE LAI HAINANESE CHICKEN RICE 记得来海南鸡饭

#01-152, Chong Pang Market and Food Centre

True to its name, which means "remember to come", Ji De Lai is the kind of neighbourhood stall diners return to for a comforting plate of chicken rice. Choose between tender steamed or roasted chicken, paired with fragrant rice, with value sets that also come with soup and greens. After being featured in the MICHELIN Guide in earlier years, the stall was promoted to Bib Gourmand in 2023 and continues to be recognised in 2026.

A TASTE OF HOME, A STORY PASSED ON

How Yishun Daily and Xiang Xiang Fishball Noodles are preserving memories across generations

If you have scrolled through TikTok, you may have spotted a familiar pineapple sharing food finds and neighbourhood stories from around Nee Soon.

Behind Yishun Daily is Tok Jia Jie, better known as JJ, a 38-year-old lifelong resident whose family ties to Nee Soon span four generations. He began the account in 2025 by documenting lunchtime outings with his young son. It soon grew into a platform celebrating the people, places and stories that give the town its character.

Through Yishun Daily, JJ hopes people outside Nee Soon will discover its hidden gems and the warmth of its community.

“Yishun is a very cosy, warm and close knit community. There is so much to Yishun that people can explore,” he said.

One place that holds special meaning for JJ is Xiang Xiang Fishball Noodles at Chong Pang Market and Food Centre.

Established in 1982, the stall is known for its homemade fishballs, generous portions and affordable prices. It also brings back fond memories of JJ's late father, who was a regular customer. This fondness for Xiang Xiang continues across his family.

Now, the story of the stall continues to be told by 23-year-old Ernest Kang, its third generation successor. Growing up around the stall and witnessing his parents' dedication inspired Ernest to carry their family legacy forward.

Balancing his studies with work at the stall was not easy. While his father handled the early morning preparations from as early as 2am, Ernest would head to the stall after school to help out and learn the daily operations. Although it sometimes meant sacrificing time with friends, his commitment came from his passion for continuing the family legacy.

As Xiang Xiang continues the tradition of serving food directly to patrons at their tables, Ernest also takes on the challenge of recognising the stall's many regular customers. To help him identify them, he pays attention to details such as the colours of their clothing, which can sometimes be challenging when customers wear similar outfits.

To connect with senior customers, Ernest picked up Hokkien, Cantonese and Teochew. Some regulars have patronised the stall for more than 30 years and remember him as a child.

“Every day, we see the same regular customers coming back,” said Ernest. “It feels very heartwarming.”

The family's signature chilli paste and method of mixing the noodles have been passed down through the generations. Ernest now supports his father with administrative work while also helping out at the stall.

After Yishun Daily featured Xiang Xiang, Ernest noticed more customers visiting. More than introducing a neighbourhood favourite, the story highlighted the people keeping local food traditions and memories alive.

Together, JJ and Ernest show how food can bring people closer to the stories, memories and familiar faces that make Nee Soon feel like home.

EXCITING UPDATES ON THE NEIGHBOURHOOD RENEWAL PROGRAMME (NRP)

Residents of Blocks 115A to 115C Yishun Ring Road can look forward to enhancements through the Neighbourhood Renewal Programme (NRP), which aims to revitalise communal areas with new greenery, upgraded facilities, and improved spaces.

Fully funded by the Government, the NRP includes proposals for a new precinct marker, an upgraded drop-off point, fitness stations for adults and seniors, as well as brand new seating and a new linkway.

"This is a significant milestone for our neighbourhood. To move forward, we need at least 75% of residents from Blocks 115A to C to vote in support of the programme," said Nee Soon GRC MP Ms Lee Hui Ying, Vice-Chairperson for Nee Soon Town Council.

"Once approved, construction will take about 15 months. Your support is essential for these vital enhancements."

Ms Lee was speaking to residents during the NRP Consensus Gathering, a lively carnival filled with games, food, and opportunities to vote on desired upgrades.

Mdm Yong, a 68-year-old resident of Block 115B, praised the proposed fitness stations and additional greenery.

Ms Lee emphasised that the NRP plans are developed based on extensive community consultations. "We welcome further feedback and suggestions, and we're happy to see how best we can incorporate your ideas."

"I'm excited for the changes, especially for kids. We used to visit nearby parks, but I look forward to new amenities right at home. Older residents will also benefit from the upgrades."

-Mr Vinoth and his wife, residents of Block 115A Yishun Ring Road

"We believe the new upgrades will attract more community gatherings and will appeal to children. Because we jog regularly, the fitness track will be a fantastic addition, and we hope the upgrades can be completed soon."

-Mr Justin and Ms Abby, residents from 115B Yishun Ring Road
